

Welcome to Canterbury

Here are a few tips to have a safe and enjoyable visit to Canterbury

Emergency contact numbers

- 999 Emergency with the Police, Ambulance or Fire Brigade
- 101 Non-emergency (lost item, damage to property/vehicle)
- 111 Non-emergency medical help and advice

Lost persons:

Local ambassadors can offer support advice and information. They wear black bowler hats and turquoise ties with this puzzle logo.

Police officers patrol the city centre and wear black uniforms. Police community support officers wear black and blue uniforms both with the police logo.

Parking and enforcement officers wear black and white and wear purple city council logo.

To group and school leaders:

- Please keep Canterbury clean: do not litter
- We have plenty of beautiful gardens in the city centre for picnic lunches
- Adults to supervise groups at all times
- When visiting some of our local shops try to enter in small supervised groups.
- For more city information, please ask at the visitor information centre located inside The Beaney of Art & Knowledge on High Street.
